

Claims

- [c1] A tubing member for use with waste water management, comprising:
- a main hollow body, having a first and second end;
 - a photoreactor plate placed in communication with said first end;
 - a series of bracing members attached to the exterior of said main hollow body;
 - a slotted opening in fixed communication with said first end; and
 - a series of tubing communicating with said second end of said main body.

a narrow opening
slit

0966509-091101